Dear Mrs. Werbin,

Thanks for your letter.

More has not been written about Tippit because there is not much that can be said with responsibility that hasn't been. I have a chapter on it in the first of the Whitewash series and I have more in a book I am not able to pay for having printed.

One can conjecture about the reasons he was killed but there is no solid explanation of which I know. I am certain Oswald was not the killer.

When last I heard Marina was married to a man named Porter. They had a drinking place not very far from Dallas.

Penn Jones can be wrriten at Midlothian, Texas. That simple address will reach him and I believe he still has copies of Foregive My Grief.

I know of no recent writing of his.

Best wishes,
